THE ANTHEM FOR SUNDAY MORNING — Easter, is the first in a set of Five Mystical Songs composed by Ralph Vaughan Williams in 1911 using texts by George Herbert (1593-1633). These songs express the mystical relationship between the believer and God in very personal terms.

The text reads, "Rise heart; thy Lord is risen. Sing his praise without delays, Who takes thee by the hand, that thou likewise with him may'st rise; That, as his death calcined thee to dust, His life may make thee gold, and much more, just. Awake, my lute, and struggle for thy part with all thy art. The crosse taught all wood to resound his name, who bore the same. His stretched sinews taught all strings, what key is the best to celebrate this most high day. Consort both heart and lute, and twist a song pleasant and long; Or since all musick is but three parts vied and multiplied. O let thy blessed Spirit bear a part, And make up our defects with his sweet art."

JAZZ SUNDAY IS APRIL 30 — Andrew Tecson and his jazz musicians will be featured at worship on April 30. The annual Jazz Sunday at RPC is a beloved tradition, with the band providing all music for the service. The son of RPC member Caroline Tecson and the late Joseph Tecson, Andy, a lawyer (a graduate of the University of Chicago Law School), grew up in Riverside. Andy began composing music as a student at RB. Some of his compositions are the Jazz Psalms, the Chicago Jazz Mass, and more recently, with his fellow musicians Bobby Schiff and Bobby Lewis, a Jazz Passion. All of these works have been performed in regional churches and beyond. A special opportunity to hear the members of this talented ensemble improvise individually on their instruments: Andy Tecson, saxophone; Bobby Schiff, piano; Stew Miller, bass; Jerry Coleman, drums; Ken Jandes, saxophone; Bobby Lewis, trumpet; and Kecia Waldschmidt, vocalist. You won't want to miss this lively service. Please join us!

HUMAN SCENE — Join us in the Parlor at 8:30 am every Sunday as Human Scene features a series of TED Talks on a variety of subjects. We will reflect on these stories through the lens of our Christian faith.

April 30: Author and entrepreneur Isaac Lidsky asks "What reality are you creating for yourself?" We will reflect on the questions, "What are some facets of the way you have created your reality? Are you satisfied with the reality you have created for yourself? What, if anything, would you wish to change about the reality you have created?"
