

Friends,

Please find an instruction sheet and paper for you to try your hand at making an origami butterfly. Sunday, we will explore resurrection using the children's book: Binkle's Time to Fly by Sharmila Collins. Have your origami butterfly ready and join us for worship.

We continue to offer worship services on our YouTube channel, and folks can join us on their telephone via Zoom. And remember that if you don't have a computer or tablet but do have a "smart" TV, you should be able to go to the YouTube channel on the TV and watch the service. On May 3 and on Pentecost, May 31, we will be celebrating the sacrament of Communion in our homes. Both Men's and Women's Forum meet via Zoom as well as Theology on Tap. The entire RPC building is closed. There are no in-person meetings and the only people allowed in the building are those stocking the food pantry and staff on an as-needed basis.

As always, if you are ill or unable to leave your house and need anything, please call me at the church office and leave a message on my voicemail, call my cellphone, or email me at pastor@rpcusa.org. You can also call your Deacon. Know that I am keeping all of you in my thoughts.

During the Easter Season we continue celebrating all the ways in which resurrection is possible in our lives. There are times that we all need resurrection and times we have all experienced resurrection. I invite you to share with me, and the congregation, stories of your how you have experienced "resurrection" in your own lives. Maybe it's your own resurrection; maybe it's a resurrection you've observed. Your story might just inspire all of us to rise up!

Although I would love for you to share your story with me as a video or an audio recording, you can also write your story and send it to me. Let me know if you need some technological hints to help your recording look and sound its best. If you choose to write something or record audio only, please include an illustrative picture or image. I will be using these stories when we gather for worship in the weeks ahead.

Peace, Dale

For information on joining worship on the internet or phone please see the bulletin.
