Our Lenten Worship Series is called: Entering the Wilderness. The Bible is full of stories of people wandering in the wilderness. We begin with the Hebrew people in Exodus and then explore the times that Jesus spent time in or talked about the wilderness. These wilderness wanderings have much to teach us when it seems our world is still spinning out of control.

The Worship Series features music by The Many. The Many is a Chicago based group who came together around their shared love of music and commitment to honest expressions of faith, peace-making, economic and racial justice, and LGBTQ+ inclusion.

Drawing on indie pop and gospel influences, The Many makes music to help give voice to faith and doubt, questions and fears, laments and longings, music that speaks to a non-violent God, a Jesus who is with us and for us, and to a Spirit that can't be easily defined or controlled. It's music for a movement of resistance to hatred and division, for reconciliation and restoration, and music that always reminds us "we are on this earth to love."

THEOLOGY ON TAP Mondays at 7:00 p.m. Join us for a video study of the book America's Unholy Ghosts: The Racists Roots of Our Faith and Politics by Joel Edward Goza. Martin Luther King Jr. challenged us to investigate the "ideational roots of our hate," and that's what author Joel Edward Goza opens up for us in these films created around some of the themes in his book. You may join us at 7:00 p.m. on Mondays (there is no need to read the book to join the discussion).
