The thematic and musical center of this hymn on the vocation of all believers is found in the refrain, which is based on the well-known challenge of Micah 6:8, "What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?"

CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsive)

The church is the place where the broken gather:
let us worship the One who reconciles us
 to one another and to God.

The church is the place where sinners are welcome:
let us worship God who, with forgiving hands,
 shapes us into new people.

The church is the place where the lost, the least,
 the forgotten, the ignored gather:
let us worship God who looks at us with the eyes of love.

* INVITATION TO PRAYER

* PRAYER FOR WHOLENESS (Unison)

We confess, God of Faith, that we ask about someone's background to see if they are like us, while you look at where their heart is grounded. We examine another's good looks or athletic prowess, while you take notice of how they reach out to those who are different. We gaze at the size of another's house or car or portfolio to judge how successful they are, and you observe whether or not they have faith the size of the smallest seed.

Forgive us, Anointing God, for looking at those around us with human eyes, and not seeing them as created in your image. As you shape us into new people, give us new eyes, new hearts, new lives to follow Jesus Silent prayers
