CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsive)

Frayed and frazzled, our lives jangling with tension and anxiety, we gather to find that place of peace which God offers to us.

Awash in worries and doubts, drowning in a sea of fears,

we gather beside the still waters where Jesus offers us a cup of grace.

Weakened by the burdens of life, wandering as if lost in a wilderness, we gather so the Spirit can restore our souls and show us the path to the kingdom.

* HYMN 481

Praise the Lord, God's Glories Show

* PRAYER OF THE DAY (Unison)

Whenever we find ourselves waist deep in stress, you float us on your living waters until we are at peace. As we try to race down every road and alley of endless meetings, you put up a detour sign directing us to your joy.

When we find ourselves empty from chasing down the shadows of sin and death, you are setting out a picnic in grace's garden of delights, handing us a slice of bread spread with hope's sweetness.

Though we try to flee from the very life we are longing to discover, you slow us down until mercy and goodness can catch up with us so, hand in hand, we can race to your house where we are welcomed in all the moments to come. Amen

* HYMN OF RESPONSE 104 verse 2

Christ Is Risen! Shout Hosanna

Christ is risen! Raise your spirits from the caverns of despair.
Walk with gladness in the morning. See what love can do and dare.
Drink the wine of resurrection, not a servant, but a friend.
Jesus is our strong companion. Joy and peace shall never end.

you are old. I re-joiced the day you were bap-tized to cheer you on. You were raised to praise the liv-ing Lord to lon-ger young, I'll be there to guide you through the night, com-see your life un-fold. I was there when you were but a whom you now be-long. If you find some-one to share your plete what I've be-gun. When the eve-ning gent-ly clos-es child with a faith to suit you well; in a blaze of time and you join your hearts as one, I'll be there to in and you shut your wea-ry eyes, I'll be there as light you wan-dered off to find where de-mons dwell."

make your vers-es rhyme from dusk till ris-ing sun."
I have al-ways been with just one more sur-prise."

4 "I was there to hear your born-ing cry; I'll be there when you are old.

I re-joiced the day you were bap-tized to see your life un-fold."

Originally created to accompany a video series on baptism, this hymn speaks in the imagined conversational voice of God, assuring the person being baptized of God's presence throughout the changing stages of life. It offers a reminder that baptism is a once-in-a-lifetime event.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2020 CHURCH TRIP—Have you ever dreamed of seeing the Blue Mosque and Haga Sofia in Istanbul? How about floating around in the Aegean Sea, stopping at Santorini, considered the most breathtaking of the Greek Isles, and several other islands? Or walking among the ruins of the Parthenon on the Acropolis in Athens?

You can do all that as well as walk in the towns that inspired Paul's letters and visit the cave where John was said to have received the Revelation if you join us on our RPC trip to Greece & Churches of the Revelation. We are considering three dates (including a summer option) in 2020 in hopes that many of you will be able to come. Pastor Dale will be holding an informational meeting today after worship, to provide more information, or you can call him personally if you can't attend either of these dates. Those who traveled to Israel and Egypt with us in 2018 know how fun it is to travel with church members. Hope you can join us!

A SERMON SERIES ON THE BOOK OF REVELATION Here is what you need to know. The author: Four times the author identifies himself as John. Justin Martyr in the second century suggested it was John the Apostle; most scholars today do not believe this to be the case. All we know is that the author was a Jewish person who knew the Hebrew Scriptures and was most likely a leader for the seven churches in Asia Minor. Date most scholars estimate the book was written around 95. Reason for writing

Since Roman authorities at this time were beginning to enforce emperor worship, Christians were facing increasing hostility. The author is writing to encourage persecuted Christians. Literary Form Revelation is apocalyptic; a kind of writing that is highly symbolic. A distinctive feature is the frequent use of the number seven (52 times). There are seven beatitudes, seven churches, seven spirits, seven golden lamp stands, seven stars, seven seals, seven horns and seven eyes, seven trumpets, seven thunders, seven signs, seven crowns, seven plagues, seven golden bowls, seven hills and seven kings, as well as other sevens. Symbolically, the number seven stands for completeness. Interpretations of Revelation normally fall into four groups: Preterists understand the book exclusively in terms of its first-century setting, claiming that most of its events have already taken place. Historicists take it as describing the long chain of events from Patmos to the end of history. Futurists place the book primarily in the end times. Idealists view it as symbolic pictures of such timeless truths as the victory of good over evil.

THEOLOGY ON TAP — Mondays, 6:30 pm at Paisans, 3720 Grand Blvd., Brookfield. Discussion begins at 7:00 pm. We are reading Barbara Brown Taylor's new book, Holy Envy. In Holy Envy, Taylor contemplates myriad ways other people and traditions encounter the Transcendent, both by digging deeper into those traditions herself and by seeing them through her students' eyes as she sets off with them on field trips to monasteries, temples, and mosques.

SPRING SERVICE AUCTION – MAY 19, 5 PM. Please join us for a Cinco de Mayo themed dinner, followed by both a live and silent auction. Lots of dinner parties, meals delivered right to your door, vacation homes, sports tickets, pet sitting – the contributions keep coming in! You'll be setting your social calendar through early 2020 with the many intriguing offerings and helping RPC meet its annual budget at the same time. There will be yummy food (not too spicy!) a signature cocktail, sangria and beer to wash it all down. (And of course, coffee, tea and lemonade). Please make every effort to attend – your participation is critical to a successful event! Muchas Gracias!

Please help provide fresh produce to our neighbors struggling with hunger and food insecurity! They’ll be picked up and delivered to a local food pantry!

Just one note: you need a spot with 6-8 hours of sun a day to grow the plants.
