

The Vision

December 2010

They Only Call On Me When They Need Something!

Have you ever heard the complaint, “They only call on me when they need something,” within the church? When is that phrase appropriate?

This is an article about Christmas—more specifically about Incarnation. How does that relate to the title....

In the psalms, you find many Hebrews angry at God, complaining about being treated badly. There was a widespread feeling (famously expressed by Job) that God was unjustly disciplining God’s children. Some folks felt that God was just hunting for excuses to be angry with them.

Of course, the opposite sentiment is also expressed—that God’s children are just hunting for excuses to be angry with God. God often refers to the Hebrews as fickle, faithless children, who abandon the worship of their God at the slightest difficulty.

This happens sometimes within marriages. Both sides seem more intent on demonstrating the faults of the other than on finding common causes, cooperating, and building upon what is good. The same can happen between humans and God. Sometimes humans get “fed up” with God, and, instead of cooperating or looking for what is good, they hunt for faults and turn away from God.

The Hebrew story is full of people turning away from God (justifying themselves by saying that God had abandoned them first), and God turning away from the people (while declaring that they had first abandoned God).

How does the cycle of blaming and abandoning end? There are two possibilities: divorce or forgiveness. Forgiveness can only happen when one party decides that the relationship is more important than being proven “right.”

The cycle of blaming and abandoning was broken with the Incarnation of Jesus the Christ. Jesus came bearing grace and forgiveness, not counting our sins against us. At Christmas we celebrate this Incarnation, and we consider how we might follow Christ’s example. God has taken the initiative. God has reached out and called to us, proclaiming that our relationship is more important than being proven “right.”

God sometimes has perfect justification to say about us, “they only call on me when they need something.” However, after the Incarnation, we are never justified in saying that about God. After the Incarnation, it is always “our turn” to respond. It is our turn to reach out and seek relationship.

As Christians, we have a responsibility to worship our Lord. When Jesus commanded us, “do this in remembrance of me,” he did not make it optional. He did not say, “if some human beings first initiate some love towards you, then consider offering some love in return.” It is our responsibility to respond to the initiative that God took in the Incarnation. Nothing that any human being can do can ever alter that responsibility.

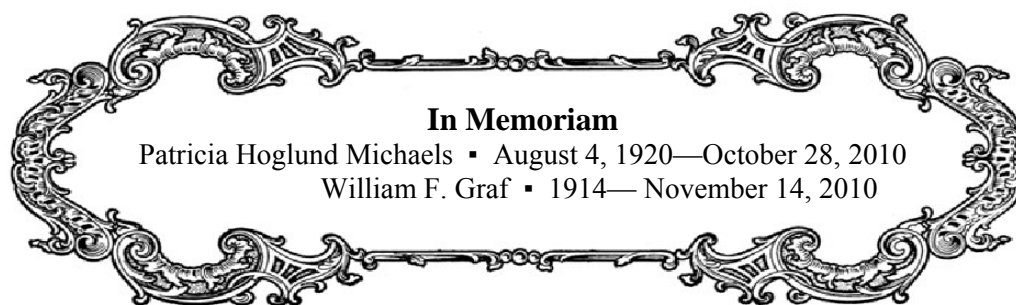

Let us not sit at home moping about being abandoned. God has sent us a Savior. As it was with the shepherds, it is now our turn to go to Bethlehem and see this great thing God has done.

Merry Christmas,
Scott Jansen

We are called to celebrate God’s presence; Nurture the spiritual life of
each individual;
Carry the light of Jesus Christ to the world; and Serve
God by serving others.

December Worship Schedule

December 5 Isaiah 11:1-13 "An Inspired Vision" How do we understand God's inspiration that led to Isaiah's vision? How can we translate Isaiah's vision to our own time and place? How does God go about actualizing God's plans? We will celebrate Communion today.

December 12 Matthew 11:2-11 "A Disappointing Messiah" What did John, and the other Jews, expect of the Messiah? How did God's plans take some twists and turns through history? Are we ever disappointed with God? How did Jesus respond to John's disappointment?

December 19 Matthew 1:18-25 "Christmas Pageant" Special Worship Service led by all of our kids. This will be a mostly "traditional Christmas Pageant" with lots of costumes and scenery and singing. Speak with Jenny Kolinski to help your kids find their roles within the service.

December 24 Christmas Eve Lessons and Carols at 4:00 p.m. and Candlelight Meditation at 10:00 p.m. The first service will be the traditional lessons and carols with "electric candles" and without commentary. The late service will feature some audience interaction/commentary, fewer lessons and fewer carols, and "real" candles.

December 26 Guest Preacher today, or possibly a Hymn Sing.

On Sunday, December 12, at 4:00 p.m., the sanctuary will be filled with the beautiful music of Handel's Messiah, composed in 1741. Handel, in describing his feelings while writing the Hallelujah Chorus, said "I did think I did see all Heaven before me, and the great God Himself." We want to keep the inspiration going, but we need your help. This year's Messiah will serve as a memorial to those we have loved and lost. Please send your memorial announcements with a donation of $40 to the RPC office, Attn: Messiah 2010. The memorials will be listed in the Messiah program.

This year's soloists are: Theresa Ludden-Wold, Erika Morrison, Wayne Parham and Pete Pohlhammer.

Please join us in the Social Hall after the performance for the annual Wassail Bowl reception.

Fellowship Tree

A church family fellowship tree is located in the parlor outside the sanctuary. You are encouraged to add a Christmas card from your family to the ornaments adorning the tree. Instead of mailing your greetings to church members, this card serves to share your holiday sentiments, and the printing and postage you save may be contributed to the Christmas Joy Offering.

Deacons' Doings

It was another busy month for the Deacons, as they continue to serve God and our church family. Deacons were all involved in the Stewardship Sunday fund drive held on October 31. After a light lunch and some fellowship in the Social Hall, Deacons fanned out among the homes of our congregation, making personal calls on our church's members. Deacons also served the meal after the memorial service for Pat Hoglund Michaels. Deacon Amanda Gregus headed up this year's CROP Walk, which our church hosted. The Deacons are assisting in sending notes and cards to our RPC college students. Next on our agenda is hosting the church's traditional Caring Christmas on December 5. Being a Deacon is a fulfilling and gratifying commitment. As a Deacon, you not only feel really good about being able to reach out and help others, but you connect with other members of our church while working side by side with them in these activities.

Sharing Our Gifts

CARERS Corner

Canned meats for First Presbyterian Church of Chicago is our request for December. So many more people are in need this season that we ask you to be particularly generous.

Also there will be the annual “CARERS GIVING TREE” in the Social Hall for Interfaith House. There will be paper ornaments on the tree with suggested gifts to be returned to the tree unwrapped. There is nothing nicer than buying a gift for someone who may not otherwise receive one. Consider yourselves thanked in advance.

Caring Christmas

Caring Christmas is around the corner. Mark your calendars for December 5 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. and join us for an evening of fellowship and fun. This year, along with our traditional cookie decorating and chili supper we will be crafting beautiful Rose Windows out of paper to decorate packages for our shut-ins. Please come and share in this wonderful hands-on ministry!

Christmas Joy Offering

For more than 70 years, Presbyterians have given generously at Christmas to support the unmet needs of families who have devoted their lives to the mission of the PCUSA. Today this Offering is shared equally by the Assistance Program of the Board of Pensions, which provides critical assistance to Presbyterian church workers and their families, and Presbyterian-affiliated racial ethnic schools and colleges, which enable students to develop their gifts and find their calling. The Offering dates back to the 1930s, when the former Presbyterian Church in the United States began an offering to supplement inadequate retirement income and provide supplemental medical insurance for former ministers, missionaries, church workers, and their families.

Although its roots trace back many years, this special offering remains just as essential today. Equally important to the financial help provided is the spiritual benefit received. Again and again, the individuals and families helped by the Offering say that as crucial as the financial assistance is, what really sustains them is the knowledge that the church is standing with them in their time of need.

The Christmas Joy Offering is one of the four special offerings designated by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to provide congregations direct ways of supporting specific causes that help others. RPC will collect the offering throughout the month of December. Please use the pew envelope or designate Christmas Joy on the memo line of your check. Donations can be made on-line at www.rpcusa.org/donations.html.

Finance Update

Year-to-date financial status at end of October (83% of the way through the year):

Receipts	$232,185 (64.7% of budget)
Disbursements	$266,986 (74.4% of budget)
Deficit	($ 34,801)

Elders have committed to eliminate the deficit, beginning with making their own contributions. Please watch your mail for an update and request to join in this effort.

God Loves a Cheerful Giver

Is there
a special person
you would like to honor
this Christmas—someone in whose name
you would like to mark a donation gift to RPC?
If so, perhaps you will welcome the opportunity to be a “Cheerful Giver”

RPC's Sunday School program provides a wonderful opportunity for children to learn about God's love every Sunday. In fact, with so many great activities going on, donations for certain items would be greatly appreciated—such as a printer, ink cartridges, and mouse pads for the new Computer Lab, a new set of bean bag chairs, dry-erase marker sets, and replacement books for the Children's Library, where books were damaged by water. Visit the Cheerful Givers Bulletin Board, which is located next to the Library in the hallway, and see how you could help the Christian Education Department this holiday season.

All Church Family Work Day

Many hands make light work.
Our Deacons demonstrate this principle at their November 12 work day. Did you ever wonder who said this? It appears in a 1546 collection of proverbs by English poet and playwright, John Heywood.

Trustees for December are Jon Jansky and George Meyer .

Children

Sunday School Teachers: A Gift to our Children

Thanks to all of our wonderful Sunday School teachers who shared their time and talents since the beginning of this Sunday School year: Shannon Buhle, Allie Burke, Jeanine Buttimer, Susan Deems-Dluhy, Nancy Dvorak, Patti Friend, Jill Glawe, Tara Gregus, Susan Lisle, Susan Lynch, Annie Mitchell, Vince Pecis, Kathi Roccanova, Noemi Sanchez and Carrie Staubus. We're still looking for a few Sunday School teachers for January. If you're interested in working with the wonderful kids of RPC please contact Jenny Kolinski at kolinski426@comcast.net.

'Tis the Season! The preschoolers will be very busy this month getting ready for the holidays. Each child will be making gifts for their families and learning new songs for our annual Christmas Program. Not only the preschoolers have been busy . . . we would like to thank Jim Sit for his technical assistance in updating the Preschool's computer. Thanks to his time and ability we are now capable of sending out e-mail reminders to our families about upcoming events. Thanks, Jim! To the Cain family for their generous donation of a puppet theater—it's wonderful! Thank you for thinking of us. Hope your holidays are joyful!

Girls' Group

For more information, contact Mary Koon at maryinwi@hotmail.com

The Girls' Group participated in the November 21 worship service.

Scouts

During November, Cub Scouts from Pack 24 and Boy Scouts from Troop 24 participated in a joint outing to Waterfall Glen within the DuPage County Forest Preserve. 5th grade Webelos scouts completed a requirement needed for their Arrow of Light award. The Boy Scouts attending worked on orienteering requirements for 2nd Class and 1st Class rank advancements. Also in November, Boy Scouts worked on Brian Robertson's Eagle Project in downtown Riverside, and camped at Starved Rock State Park over the Thanksgiving weekend, while the Cub Scouts held their annual Bobcat Ceremony. The Scouts want to thank everyone who purchased popcorn, one of the fundraisers supporting our scouts.

The Advent Wreath that you will see lit each Sunday during December was given in memory of Harriet Ames Carlson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ames, who became members of RPC in 1888. You'll recognize that name from our local Ames School. Mrs. Ames is responsible for starting the RPC Youth Group in 1913. Harriet Kweton, a current member of our church, is the Ames' granddaughter.

2010-2011 Bible Study

The topic for the 2010-2011 Horizons Bible Study is "Journeys Through Revelation, Apocalyptic Hope for Today" by Barbara R. Rossing. Many people's impressions are that the book of Revelation is violent and fearsome: four horsemen unleash destruction and calamity upon the earth; mysterious numbers like "666" spell destruction; mutant locusts and multi-headed beasts terrify; a scarlet whore of Babylon seduces nations with her cup of fornications; an end-times battle of Armageddon leaves millions slaughtered.

Plan to join the ladies on Wednesday, January 26, 2011 at 10:00 a.m. in the RPC Social Hall. No study is planned in December.

Elizabeth Musick, Sylvia Schade, and Joyce Van Cura rotate the leader position. Elizabeth will lead the study for Lesson Four, "Diagnosing the Crises of Empire." Scripture: Revelation 6. Key Idea: The frightening images that come for the opening of the first six seals reveal to John's audience and to us the dangers of an unjust empire.

When he opened the sixth seal, I looked, and there came a great earthquake; the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood, and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as the fig tree drops its winter fruit when shaken by a gale. Revelation 6:12-13

For more information, please contact Elizabeth Musick at lizm_59@sbcglobal.net.

Pecans . . . Pecans . . . Pecans . . . Seventy-two one-pound bags of freshly harvested pecan halves were delivered on Thursday, organized on Friday, distributed on Sunday, and gone in one coffee hour. Thanks to the 33 participants, with 30 pre-orders, 15 of which were prepaid, it was a smooth operation. For each pound sold, $2.05 goes to the Erie House for their Team Tutoring program for college-bound high school students. This project was handled by our Riverside Presbyterian Women.

Human Scene

December 5: The Virgin Birth

Pastor Scott leads us through the landmines of Mary's purported virginity. Christians have struggled for centuries with understanding Mary's pregnancy. We can ask "how" or "why" she became pregnant. But perhaps the most fruitful question is, How is the world different because of Mary's pregnancy?

December 12: Managing Your Stress

It's a busy season, and all the fun can get stressful. Add to that the general stress of modern life, and it can sometimes get to be too much. During this class, Melinda Yachnin, LCPC, will talk about the latest research about the effects of stress and the best ways for managing it.

December 19: Christmas Oratorio

Mary Ann Sadilek will lead a class on a favorite piece of Christmas music, Bach's "Christmas Oratorio." We will listen to excerpts from the piece, and Mary Ann will explain its deeper meanings. Everyone will have the chance to join in singing some of the familiar chorales Bach used.

December 26: No Class

January 2: Class resumes with a Bible study led by Pastor Scott.

Events

RPC Weekend Connections continues as a new endeavor to gather people of all ages together for enjoyable and meaningful events. It is open to church members and also anyone in the community. Our aims are community building, cross-generational interaction, fun, fellowship, and education. There will usually be child care available ($5/child/event) with advance notice to Jennie Kolinski at kolinski426@comcast.net. Anyone interested in an event and needing transportation, please notify the RPC office, so a ride can be arranged.

Events to date have included viewing and discussing an award winning documentary, The Power of Forgiveness (in October), and participating in the Riverside United Methodist Church 1000 Tree Planting Project and RPC Games Night in November.

For many years, members of RPC have supported BEDS PLUS, an organization providing services to the homeless of west suburban Cook County. Since 1988, BEDS PLUS has given the homeless a safe place to sleep, hot homemade meals, professional counseling, and the job services they need to become self-sufficient. Perhaps you have wondered how you might help? The BEDS website at www.bedsonline.org/ lists many ways you might be able to volunteer, but here is one very easy way: Postage is one of their biggest administrative costs. Nightly shift logs, schedules, shelter forms, newsletters, invitations, grant applications, reporting documents and other tools keep BEDS' mission thriving - but they all require postage, and lots of it!

If you have extra stamps around the house, or if you could pick up a book of stamps and donate it to BEDS, you'd help them cover an essential (and expensive) part of their program costs. Every stamp helps!

Please consider sending BEDS one $8.80 book of stamps. Their address is: BEDS PLUS, P.O. Box 3025, LaGrange, Illinois 60525.
