Lent: Destructive or Constructive Criticism

Is Lent an outdated concept? Churches that are typically seen as “old” or “traditional” tend to observe Lent, while churches that are “contemporary” or “cutting edge” tend to ignore Lent. Maybe we should get with the times and forget about Lent? What do you think?

On February 13 we kick off Lent with Ash Wednesday, beginning with a potluck supper filled with joy and laughter. Then we go to the sanctuary for a service that includes the solemn remembrances of the Last Supper as well as the imposition of ashes on people’s foreheads.

Some of the churches that have jettisoned Lent teach that Lent is spiritually destructive. It helps no one to heap guilt upon oneself or others. Guilt can be paralyzing and people often generate more than enough guilt on their own, without any help from the Church.

I agree with such churches on two points. First, we should not observe Lent merely because it is a tradition. The purpose is not to honor our grandparents and do whatever they did. We have no duty to repeat what worked in the past solely because it worked in the past. Lent must be something other than blind enslavement to tradition.

Secondly, Lent is not designed to heap paralyzing guilt upon people simply for the sake of creating a feeling of shame and humility. If that is the only thing that Lent means to you, you would be better off ignoring it.

However, I feel that Lent has a positive purpose that is sometimes lost in the appearances of things. By analogy, many of us receive some form of performance evaluation at the end of the year from our employers. Students receive performance reviews even more frequently than once a year. The purpose of a performance review is not to make you feel badly about your mistakes—but to empower you to learn where you have the most potential for improvement.

Of course, one sometimes hears horror stories about employers who denigrate more than instruct or teachers who deride more than educate. It is not impossible for Lent to be handled badly in certain cases. But we can evaluate the appropriateness of our Lenten journey by asking one simple question—is this helping me to become a better person?

The first step in becoming a better person is to identify some area in which you can stand a little improvement. This is the goal of all Lenten discipline. If you keep that in mind, perhaps it will help you observe a Holy Lent.

Your brother in Christ,
Scott

We are called to celebrate God’s presence; Nurture the spiritual life of each individual; Carry the light of Jesus Christ to the world; and Serve God by serving others.

February Worship Schedule

February 3 Jeremiah 1:4-10 “The First Boy Scout” How did God prepare Jeremiah to become a leader? How do Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts prepare boys and girls to become future leaders? How can we empower our youth to feel more responsible for the world they are inheriting? Today we will celebrate communion. It’s also Scout Sunday, and we will also be taking up the Souper Bowl Offering for the Youth Group Ministries.

February 10 2 Corinthians 3:12-4:2 “Removing the Veil” Why do folks wear a veil/mask during Mardi Gras? Why did Paul consider the traditional Judaism of his youth to be based on a “veiled” covenant? How is the Christian faith different? How is Paul’s unveiled faith like an ecstatic carnival experience? What kind of “freedom” is Paul commending to us?

February 13 Ash Wednesday Family Worship 7:00 p.m. (following the potluck). Readings will come from Jonah 3:4-10, and Psalms 51:1-17. The service will include a congregational discussion of the scriptures, the imposition of ashes, and communion by intinction (no sermon).

February 17 Romans 10:5-13 “Lenten Disciplines” Where do we find our point of connection with God? Moses taught that the connecting point was in one’s obedience to the law of God. What does Paul mean by the “righteousness that comes by faith?” How was this a new idea at the time?

February 24 Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18 and Luke 13:31-35 “Omniscience and Omnipotence” What does God’s promise to Abram say about God’s omniscience? What does Christ’s lament over Jerusalem say about God’s omnipotence? How are these two concepts tied together? What does the Biblical view of God’s omniscience and omnipotence say about our responsibility to repent during the season of Lent?

Deacon Districts ▪ Please note the new Deacon District assignments above. In the coming weeks, your Deacon will be contacting you just to say hello and see how you are doing. Be sure to let your Deacon know if you have any special needs, such as rides to church, home communion, illness in the family, etc.

Cantata (British Home) Service ▪ The Deacons provide a church service at 1:30 p.m. on the first Sunday of every month at Cantata (formerly The British Home). The service includes scripture, a message, music and fellowship for the residents. Extra help in greeting the residents is always welcome.

Scottish Home Service ▪ The Deacons provide a church service at 2:00 p.m. on the third Sunday of every month at The Scottish Home. The service includes scripture, a message, music and fellowship for the residents. Extra help in greeting the residents is always welcome.

Rides to Church ▪ Do you need a ride to church? Or know someone who does? Deacons love to get to know members better by providing rides to and from the Sunday service. Please contact either Frank Gangware or Tom DeVries and one of them will find a super Deacon Driver for you.

Home Communion ▪ If you are unable to attend church and would like to have communion brought to you at home, please notify your Deacon or the church office.

Flower Delivery ▪ When we have fresh flowers in the chancel, Deacons deliver them to homebound members needing some cheer. By the way, please consider sponsoring fresh flowers some Sunday, especially if you have a birthday, anniversary or memorial to honor. The sign-up is in the hallway leading to the social hall.

Deacons . . . we do mission work in partnerships!

CARERS Corner

Our donation for the month of February is canned foods of all kinds--meat, fish, vegetables, fruit etc. With winter upon us, these are vital contributions, especially for the young and aged. We will deliver these to our local Riverside Food Pantry. We know you will continue to be generous, so we thank you in advance.

Per Capita

The first envelope in your box of offering envelopes is one labeled “Per Capita.” Like many Presbyterians, you may have wondered, “Exactly what does Per Capita do?”

Per Capita is an assessment per member (this year, $30.68) that our congregation pays to our larger Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). It is the money that enables us to work with other Presbyterian churches in our presbytery and across the country. It also allows us to work with other churches to further the mission of Jesus Christ around the world. Your contribution funds:

- ◆ General Assembly meeting where Presbyterians gather together to worship and discern the mind of Christ for the church.
- ◆ Mission work throughout the world. Per Capita helps to pay for meetings of Presbyterians with people of other Christian churches, allowing us to maintain those ties for mission.
- ◆ Presbyterian resources such as the Book of Order and The Book of Confessions. Per Capita pays for producing these basic resources, including other languages such as Spanish, Korean, and Braille.
- ◆ Funding for the preparation, administration, and grading of standard ordination examinations for seminary students.
- ◆ Leadership training for our presbyteries such as annual training events for presbytery executives, stated clerks, and others who help lead our work and mission.

Thank you to all of you who have already paid your share. By contributing your Per Capita, you have freed up dollars in our regular budget for the work of our congregation in this community. If you haven't yet contributed, we hope you will consider doing so, by check with “Per Capita” written on the memo line, or online at www.rpcusa.org (Donate button at upper right).

Finance Update

Year-to-date financial status at end of December (100% of the way through the year):

Receipts	$ 304,670 (93.7% of budget)
Disbursements	$ 317,828 (97.8% of budget)
Deficit	$ 13,158

Thanks to generous donations and careful spending, in 2012 the deficit was reduced from $21,171 to $13,158, a difference of $8,013.

Paul on the Road

During this rotation, we'll be exploring the Apostle Paul ( known as Saul before his transformation), who did some pretty awful things to the followers of Jesus. He eventually found "The Way" and went on to preach the Gospel all over Asia Minor. This story can help us remember that no matter what our life choices have been, God's unending love for us allows new possibilities. This month we'll have guest artists in Creation Station, guest musicians in Oasis Place, a cooking lesson in the Manse, some time in the computer lab--and more!

	Grades K/1/2	Grades 3/4/5	Grades 6/7/8

February 10	Manse Kitchen	Celestial Cinema	Computer Lab
February 17	Computer Lab	Manse Kitchen	Creation Station
February 24	Celestial Cinema	Creation Station	Manse Kitchen

February's Memory Verse

"Who are you Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. Get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." Acts 9: 5-6

Extra Fun in February: Special Prize Box Visits

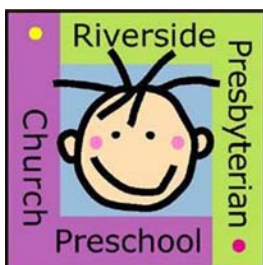

This month ALL kids will have the opportunity to visit the Sunday School prize box. Each grade will have a Sunday in February when they can pick something special from the prize box. The schedule is February 3: Kindergarten, 1st and 2nd grades, February 10: 3rd, 4th and 5th grades, February 24: 6th, 7th & 8th grades.

Help! We're stuck!!

Our Sunday school offerings thermometer seems to have gotten stuck. Could you help to get it moving again by bringing your offerings to Sunday school? Even a few loose coins could make a huge difference to a family in need. It's extremely important that kids realize that we're greatly blessed by God and that God, in turn, asks us to share our blessings. Stewardship encourages an attitude of gratitude. Experts cite that children usually form their attitudes about sharing sometime between the ages of 6 and 10. They will either develop an entitlement attitude – "The world owes me." "I don't have enough." or a stewardship attitude – "I have been blessed." "I am happy to share." God has given our children an abundance of good things and it's up to us to encourage them to share. Bringing offerings to Sunday school is a great way to start.

Fish Banks...Coming Soon

Another great way to share our blessings is through One Great Hour of Sharing. Fish Banks will be distributed to Sunday school children and youth in mid-February and will be collected on Palm Sunday and Easter. Watch for more information coming soon.

Preschool is getting ready for a sweet February. Valentine's Day is always so much fun because the children will be delivering their own Valentines. We will also be visiting the Riverside Art Center to make a clay creation to celebrate the beginning of spring - which will be here before we know it.

We still have some morning openings for our 2013-2014 school year. If you know of anyone looking for a fantastic preschool, have them give us a call.

Prayers for Peace

The Covenant of Churches has suspended the Prayers for Peace that were formerly held every first Wednesday of the month. In lieu of gathering to pray, we suggest that individuals pray for peace as the spirit leads them, or they may choose to use the following prayer.

A Prayer for the World

Let the rain come and wash away the ancient grudges,
the bitter hatreds
held and nurtured over generations.
Let the rain wash away the memory of the hurt, the neglect.
Then let the sun come out and fill the sky with rainbows.
Let the warmth of the sun heal us
wherever we are broken.
Let it burn away the fog so that we can see beyond labels
beyond accents, gender or skin color.
Let the warmth and brightness of the sun melt our selfishness.
So that we can share the joys and feel the sorrows of our neighbors.
And let the light of the sun
be so strong that we will see all people as our neighbors.
Let the earth, nourished by rain,
bring forth flowers
to surround us with beauty.
And let the mountains teach our hearts
to reach upward to heaven.
Amen.

Blankets + Church World Service

RPC annually supports Blankets+, a ministry of Church World Service, assisting people worldwide who are affected by a natural disaster. Church World Service works in partnership with communities to identify their needs, providing such things as blankets, tents, food and emergency supplies; tools and seeds for refugees returning home to plant; wells for safe drinking water and crop irrigation; and literacy training and microcredit loans.

Although the ministry is called Blankets +, we do not actually send the physical blankets. Our monetary contributions go to CWS to assist both in the United States and abroad. CWS responded to Hurricane Sandy by providing 10,075 blankets, 7,005 baby kits, 14,880 hygiene kits, 10,020 school kits, and 2,037 emergency cleanup buckets, with a total value of $750,369 (calculated as of November 2012).

Colorful envelopes are in the church pews awaiting your donation. Checks should be made payable to Riverside Presbyterian Church with "Blankets +" in the memo line.

Girls' Group News

On November 29, the Girls' Group baked holiday cookies for Cantata (British Home) residents. We had so much fun working together, chatting, and laughing during this long but productive night. The following morning, Saturday, December 1, we delivered the freshly baked cookies to Cantata as we mingled with the residents. Girls' Group prepared 75 bags of baked goods for the residents. It was so nice to see how the residents were appreciative of such small gifts.

On December 6, we welcomed special guest speaker Tondalaya Shepard-Turner, MS-CED, the Director of Volunteer & Community Services at the Sinai Health System in Chicago. She shared her wonderful work in the Little Village (and surrounding areas) community, which is predominantly inhabited by Mexican immigrants. Tondalaya shared her passion for this community and the love for her career. She shared how her calling was developing at a young age when her grandfather, a pastor of a Baptist church, would take her to deliver groceries for families in need, but who, because of their pride, did not ask for handouts or help. Tondalaya was curious why she had to ring the door bell, run, and climb into her grandfather's car to speed off. Her grandfather would take Tondalaya on these "errands" on a daily basis. Later, Tondalaya realized that they were doing God's work through these errands, by looking after "the least of these."

On Sunday, December 9, Girls' Group supported RPC's Board of Deacons in their yearly Caring Christmas tradition. We packed homemade treats and baked goods for our elderly, shut-ins, and those going through other hardships. In total, we packaged 25 trays of baked goods.

On December 13, Girls' Group volunteered at the Schwab Rehabilitation Hospital in Chicago by staffing a community Christmas party for children and adults with physical and mental disabilities. The girls were moved to see the need in this impoverished community and donated a toy for the hospital's toy closet. When we were approaching the hospital it was difficult to ignore the smiles of children leaving with their donated Christmas gifts. As we departed from the hospital we saw the same smiles on other children's faces. It was a great night!

On January 24, we welcomed Iris Marban, who shared the story of her eating disorder as a teen.

Upcoming Events:

Monday, February 4 We will be welcoming Special Guest Speaker Sarah Stukas, MS, LCPC. Sarah Stukas is a professional therapist experienced in working with children with eating disorders. We will be meeting on Monday instead of Thursday to accommodate our guest speaker. Please make an effort to participate since our guest speakers come on a voluntary basis. Please bring a friend. There will be snacks available.

Thursday, February 7 NO GIRLS' GROUP

Thursday, February 14 Friendship party

Presbyterian Women's Bible Study

The topic for the Presbyterian Women's Bible Study for 2012-2013 is Dispatches to God's Household: The General Epistles by Nancy Benson-Nicol. All women are invited to participate and enjoy a cup of coffee. The next meeting is February 27 at 10:00 a.m. in the Social Hall.

Lesson 5: The Ties that Bind

Scripture: 1 Peter 3

Key Idea(s): In God's household, all relationships, including marital relationships, are called to model non-coercive love. A part of our discernment process, as we encounter the text in the lesson, involves uncovering aspects of its message that allow for the possibility of a more egalitarian understanding of godly male/female relationships. The roles of women: now versus then.

Elizabeth Musick, Sylvia Schade, and Joyce Van Cura are the rotating leaders. Lesson 5 will be led by Sylvia Schade.

Human Scene

February 3 ▪ Soul and Body

Dr. Stan Schade will be asking the questions: "Are we Greek or Hebrew"? Wherein lies the separation of soul and body? Dr. Schade will be tracing the historical development of this question.

February 10 ▪ Gun Control Morality

Pastor Scott leads an exploration of the various religious arguments pertaining to the questions of gun control. What are the moral principles behind some of the positions that are sometimes shouted rather stridently? Can the two sides find any common ground in their religious values?

February 17 ▪ Enduring Marriages Against the Odds

A panel discussion of three couples who have seen it all, and relate their long-lasting experiences in marriage that have benchmarks of success and endurance. Lou and Martha Heine, Dennis and Mary Ann Sadilek and Bill and Vicky Vogel will constitute the panel.

February 24 ▪ Lenten Disciplines

Pastor Scott leads a discussion of various expressions of faith that are traditionally used during the season of Lent. What are the theological purposes being served by the disciplines? How does one find the most effective discipline for one's own journey?

Scouts

Our boy scouts held two fun outings in January. Early in the month a group took a day trip for indoor "rock" climbing in Warrenville. Those who didn't get enough adventure by climbing had the chance to spend a weekend crawling around a cave in Wisconsin later in the month. The Scouts and leaders slept in Eagle Cave, leaving only to eat in the dining hall or hike through the grounds. The Eagle Cave outing has been a favorite with our scouts for many years. On February 3 our scouts look forward to celebrating the long-standing relationship between Troop and Pack 24 and Riverside Presbyterian Church. RPC has been the chartered organization for the Troop since 1939. Troop 24 currently has 62 scouts in grades six through high school, and Pack 24 has 74 scouts in grades one through five.
