

The Vision

March 2013

Sleep and Resurrection

March is a wonderful month outdoors. Hibernating animals arouse from their slumber. Trees start to bud and leaf out. Wild flowers pop up in unexpected places—sometimes right through the snow. Birds are busy forming new nests for their chicks. In many ways, death is replaced with life.

“Death” takes on many different shades in nature. Physical death is just an opportunity for certain basic forms of life to begin again. As one Disney film put it, we are all a part of the “circle of life.”

In one meaningful way, we experience “death” every day—we fall asleep. While we sleep, there is no conscious awareness that we exist. The Bible speaks frequently of death as a kind of “sleep.”

When I wake up in the morning, it is as if a new life comes (back) into existence. Your life is not one continuous stream of consciousness, but rather a series of discontinuous segments of consciousness. And yet, we remember well what happened yesterday—we remember it as if it happened to “me.”

Death is such a fearsome force, we often deny death and pretend that it does not pertain to us. So, it is especially difficult to view natural sleep as a kind of “death.” Our bias is not to be associated with death in any way, so such an acknowledgment sets off a natural fear response. But if we overcome that fear, recognize that death is a part of life, and acknowledge that death is unavoidable, perhaps we can acknowledge our daily sleep as a kind of foreshadowing of our death.

If I read a chapter of a book today, I will remember it tomorrow and be able to connect it to the chapter I read then. In a way, everything that I do and experience today is “deposited” into a soul that “dies” when I sleep and is resurrected when I wake. It is the accumulation of all those “deposits” that makes me who I am.

Where is our soul (our memories, passions, values, personalities, etc.) “stored” while we sleep? Perhaps the data is all encoded in our brain cells. But I also believe that everything we experience is a shared experience with God—God knows everything we’ve ever thought or done.

The Christian gospel claims that death is not the end of us. We know that sleep is not the end of us. We have confidence that we will awaken in the morning. This confidence was itself deposited into our souls by previous segments of consciousness as they experienced awakening. But Christians also believe that the deposits we make along the way into God’s memory banks will be remembered by God for all eternity. The message of Good Friday and Easter is that we are loved by One who has received the “deposits” of all that we are. Therein lies our hope.

Your brother in Christ,
Scott

We are called to celebrate God’s presence; Nurture the spiritual life of each individual; Carry the light of Jesus Christ to the world; and Serve God by serving others.

Worship

March Worship Schedule

March 3 ▪ Luke 13:1-9 “Repentance” Repentance means to “turn around.” We often focus on the sins from which we are turning away, but perhaps it is wiser to focus on the goodness toward which we are turning. How do we “redeem the time” that we have been given? Is this something done in one holy moment, or is it something that takes place over a lifetime? We will also celebrate Holy Communion on this day.

March 10 ▪ A guest preacher from the Chicago Presbytery will be preaching this day while Scott is away on Continuing Education leave at McCormick Seminary.

March 17 ▪ Philippians 3:4b-14 “Confirmation Sunday” Today’s “sermon” will focus on what issues of faith are most pressing for our confirmation class of 2013. They will also be received as new members during worship.

March 24 ▪ Palm Sunday ▪ Luke 19:28-40 “Praising Jesus as Civil Disobedience” Why were the Pharisees upset that people were praising Jesus? What effect does it have in our lives if we offer praise to Jesus? Should we still be praising Jesus, even after all these years? Today is Palm Sunday and we will celebrate with traditional Palms waving and children singing.

March 28 ▪ Maundy Thursday at 7:00 p.m. ▪ A Tenebrae service—a somber service of music and lessons with brief congregational discussion of each lesson and extinguishing candles. No sermon nor kids’ sermon today. We will celebrate Communion by intinction in the round, but the service will get darker and darker as we proceed—literally. The service ends in darkness and silence.

March 29 ▪ Ecumenical Good Friday at noon at Christ Community Presbyterian Church of North Riverside. All pastors who are members of the Covenant of Churches are invited to share in the preaching of very brief homilies for this ecumenical service. To join the ecumenical music efforts for the day (instrumental or vocal), please contact Pastor Brent Raska (brent.raska@gmail.com).

March 31 ▪ Easter Sunday ▪ Worship Services at 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. (no Sunday School today). Luke 24:1-12 “Spices for the Dead” The women brought spices to anoint the dead body of Jesus, but they could not find the body. What did they do with the spices? Why do we try to “pretty up” dead bodies today? Is death something to avoid at all costs, or something to embrace with joy?

Session Highlights

In February, the Session:

- ◆ received Lowell Morrison, Gayle Prendki, Callie Schexnayder, and Frank Van De Vanter as new members;
- ◆ approved a new rental agreement with the Preschool, based on a percentage of the school's total revenue;
- ◆ asked the Trustees to determine the cost of having a market value appraisal of the Rose Window;
- ◆ noted that noon Good Friday service will be held at Christ Community Presbyterian Church in North Riverside;
- ◆ noted that a volunteer is still being sought to fill the position of RPC's Assistant Treasurer

Mary Ann Sadilek
Clerk of Session

Kiwiet Memorials to Benefit RPC's Organ

Memorials given in loving memory of John Kiwiet have been designated to the organ fund, specifically to order a bell stop called a Zimbelstern. Because John Kiwiet always enjoyed listening to bells played in churches in both Europe and America, the Kiwiet family has decided that the addition of a zimbelstern would be a fitting memorial in honor of John.

An example of a Zimbelstern.

The Zimbelstern, meaning "Cymbal Star" in German, is a "toy" organ stop consisting of a metal or wooden star or wheel on which several small bells are mounted. When engaged, the star rotates, producing a continuous tinkling sound. It was common in northern Europe, Germany in particular, throughout the 16th, 17th, and 18th centuries. In some Christian liturgical traditions, it is rung during the singing of the Sanctus or on doxological stanzas of hymns.

New Members

Please welcome new members Lowell Morrison, Gayle Prendki, Callie Shexnayder, and Frank Van De Vanter. Lowell, Gayle, and Frank are transferring from Berwyn Presbyterian Church. Callie is accompanied by husband Gonzo and sons Riley (age 9) and Jonah (age 8), and daughter Ella (age 1).

Media Sale

Thanks to everyone who donated to and helped with the media sale on February 9. We are nearing $900 with a little more anticipated from additional sales to Half Price Books, a couple of the used record stores, and perhaps selling a few of the more promising items on ebay. If you would like a receipt for your donations for tax purposes, please contact Sandra Kappmeyer at skappzan@aol.com.

CARERS Corner

In March the First Presbyterian Church of Chicago is asking for canned meat and fish, one dish meals, and ready-to-serve meals of all kinds. These are important for families to have on hand during these remaining weeks of winter.

What is ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING?

Since March 1949, Presbyterians have joined with millions of other Christians through One Great Hour of Sharing to share God's love with people experiencing need. Our gifts support ministries of disaster response, refugee assistance and re-settlement, and community development.

When is the offering received?

In February, children received their One Great Hour of Sharing banks at Sunday School. Additional banks are available in the information rack outside the church office. With the bank is a calendar suggesting ways to put change into the bank. The children will have an opportunity to present their gifts on Palm Sunday or on Easter Sunday at either of the services. Of course, banks will be accepted later in April too.

What if I don't have children?

Special offering envelopes will be placed in the pews and bulletin inserts will tell about One Great Hour of Sharing. You need not wait to make your donation to the program. You don't even have to wait until a Sunday!

www.pcusa.org provides a secure link for those who like to donate with a credit card, or you may mail a donation directly to: Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), Church Remittance Processing, P.O. Box 643700, Pittsburgh, PA 15264-3700.

News From the Legacy Society

The Legacy Society was established in 2012 to recognize members and friends of RPC who have included the church in their estate plans. Here's what Dennis and Mary Ann Sadilek have to say about deciding to provide for RPC in this way:

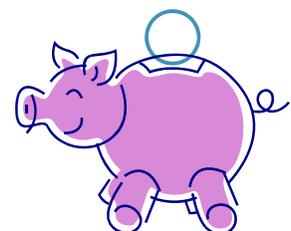

We are grateful to those who came before us and have sustained RPC for 141 years. We want to help provide the future generations with the same opportunities for worship, spiritual growth, service, fellowship and care that we have received through our membership. We are grateful for God's blessings, so generously bestowed upon us, and hope that our gift will help the church to be a faithful witness to God's love for many years.

If you are interested in joining the Legacy Society, information is available on the church website or from the church office.

The Last Supper

During this brief but meaningful rotation we'll be exploring the Last Supper in Sunday School. We'll spend time looking at Communion traditions in our congregation to help children connect important Biblical stories to their lives today. They'll also have a chance to experience the Last Supper through art and by sharing a Seder meal together.

March Memory Verse

While they were eating, Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat, this is my body." Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you, for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

Mark 26: 26-28

Important Date for all Sunday School Kids: March 3

Last month, kids enjoyed an amazing musical Sunday school class taught by John and Kelly Haugland. On Sunday, March 3; all classes will perform the song they learned during the worship service. It's important for kids to attend Sunday school on this day because it's the only chance they'll have to practice their song as a group before performing in the Sanctuary.

Bible Presentation Sunday for 2nd Grade

April 14 is a special day for RPC's 2nd graders. It's Bible Presentation Sunday! Please join us for this special day to celebrate with the 2nd grade Bible recipients and their families. We'll also enjoy some Bible Presentation 'Sundaes' in the Social Hall during coffee fellowship. This month, 2nd graders will participate in their own Sunday school rotation to help them prepare for their special day. Please make every effort for your 2nd grader to attend Sunday school during March so they're ready for their big day.

Fish Banks: One Great Hour of Sharing

A great way to share our blessings is through "One Great Hour of Sharing." Fish Banks were distributed to Sunday school children and youth in late February and will be collected on Palm Sunday and Easter. Every penny counts!

Winter weather is coming to a close and we're hoping spring weather is right around the corner. We are getting ready for our annual Book Fair and Raffle, which begins on March 2. On March 3, the preschool will be hosting Coffee Fellowship (hope to see you there) and the preschool open house. If that's not enough to keep us busy, we will be celebrating our preschool dads during two fun-filled "Dads' Nights" and visiting the Riverside ArtS Center to make a clay creation just in time for spring.

The 2012-2013 Confirmation Class began in September and will conclude by welcoming the new confirmands into membership of RPC on Sunday, March 17. Please join us at the 10:00 service and at Coffee Fellowship afterwards to welcome this great group into our church family!

Scouts

Our scouts invite all our RPC family and friends to attend the annual Scout Pancake Breakfast, to be held in the RPC Social Hall on Saturday, March 2, from 7:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Pack 24 Cub Scouts started the year with one of their most popular events--the Pinewood Derby--on January 19, and held their annual Blue and Gold Banquet on February 24. Twelve Webelos scouts crossed over into Troop 24, and one to Troop 90. With the addition of our new scouts, Troop 24 now includes 75 scouts.

During February our boy scouts went on two adventure outings. A group of nineteen scouts had a chance to try an afternoon of scuba diving at a local pool. Last year at summer camp five scouts became scuba-certified, and ten more scouts will take the certification class at camp this summer. Thirty-one scouts and family members went on the annual ski trip to Sunburst, near Milwaukee, on February 23-24.

Youth

Teen Scene

During March, the high school Sunday School class will discuss taking the teachings of Jesus into today's world. All high school students are invited to join the group in the RPC Library on Sundays at 9:00 a.m.

Youth Group

All are welcome to join us for any of our youth group activities. Questions? Contact Tara Gregus at taragregus@yahoo.com. Watch your email for details on the events listed below.

Girls' Group News

A lot of great things are happening during Girls' Group! We will be extending our session time for the junior high girls (5th through 8th grades). They will meet for an extra half-hour, from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. on Thursday evenings. Girls' Group is not just a group of girls who meet on a regular basis to chit-chat. Girls' Group has become a "safe haven" for the participants. At Girls' Group we discuss topics to raise self-esteem; we do community service locally, but also globally; we share our thoughts, our bad days, our problems; and we discuss topics that sometimes the girls are a bit uncomfortable discussing with their parents or siblings .

On January 31, Natalie Lisle brought her "FAV" to session--her adorable guinea pig named Pretzel. We had lots of fun holding, petting and learning about guinea pigs. During "FAV" time the girls have the opportunity to run the evening by being the "leader," answering questions about themselves and about their "FAV." Speaking in front of their peers gives them the opportunity to raise their self-esteem and help with the stage fright that many experience. We also had a small celebration in honor of Laura and Rachel McLean's 13th birthday.

On February 4 we welcomed back guest speaker Sarah Stukas, MS, LCPC. Sarah Stukas is a professional therapist experienced in working with people struggling with eating disorders. On February 8, Girls' Group was asked to help the Fellowship Committee decorate the church's Social Hall and gym for a square dance. On February 14, we held our annual "Friendship Party." On February 21, we welcomed our "Big Sister" Lily Lisle as a special guest speaker. Lily shared her experiences as a "professional" high school student, and gave the junior high group pointers and suggestions about high school. We had a wonderful night asking questions and receiving reassurance that life as a high school student isn't that bad after all!

Girls' Group meets on a weekly basis on Thursdays from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. (5th-8th grade) at the Oasis Place.

- March 7: Guest Speaker
- March 14: My "FAV"
- March 16: (Saturday) Visit to the Ronald McDonald House
- March 17: (Sunday) Church card-making Day (during Coffee Fellowship)
- March 21: Girls' Group Card-making Party! 6:00- 7:30 p.m.

Presbyterian Women's Bible Study

The topic for the Presbyterian Women's Bible Study for 2012-2013 is Dispatches to God's Household: The General Epistles by Nancy Benson-Nicol. All women are invited to participate and enjoy a cup of coffee. The next meeting is March 27 at 10:00 a.m. in the Social Hall.

Lesson 5: The Elders

Scripture: 1 Peter 5:1-11; 2 John

Key Idea(s): In God's household, those of elder status (by position and/or by age and experience) are charged to demonstrate selfless love and a nurturing spirit to those under their care, and to equip sisters and brothers in Christ that they might embody the same qualities. To practice loving kindness is to bear witness to Christ, even, and especially, in the face of suffering

Elizabeth Musick, Sylvia Schade, and Joyce Van Cura are the rotating leaders. Lesson 6 will be led by Joyce Van Cura.

Not Too Late to Donate to Blankets +

RPC annually supports Blankets+, a ministry of Church World Service, assisting people worldwide who are affected by a natural disaster. Church World Service works in partnership with communities to identify their needs, providing such things as blankets, tents, food and emergency supplies; tools and seeds for refugees returning home to plant; wells for safe drinking water and crop irrigation; and literacy training and microcredit loans. Checks should be made payable to Riverside Presbyterian Church, with "Blankets +" in the memo line. Your contributions help provide the means to transform lives and communities recovering from a disaster.

Human Scene

March 3 In the Garden of Beasts

Roberta Gates presents a book review. In the summer of 1933, Ambassador William Dodd arrived in Berlin just in time to see Hitler consolidate his power. But while Dodd's wife and son played supportive roles, his 24-year-old daughter, Martha, became a distraction by falling in love with the "New Germany" -- and some of its most dangerous men.

March 10 What's New in the Presbyterian Church?

Laura Vanags will provide information on Presbytery Assembly meetings, LEAD seminars and women's spirituality seminars, where we have learned about what's new, a variety of interesting topics, ministries, issues/challenges we face, and about our Presbyterian identity. Come to gain insight presented by Laura and several RPC members.

March 17 Let's Have A Really Uncomfortable Chat About Money!: Presbyterian Stewardship in the 21st Century. Jim Marciniak leads a discussion on PCUSA's current thinking on stewardship, and how we at RPC try to use stewardship to become the Christian community that we want to be.

March 24 American Higher Education: New Trends & Problems

Richard Crang will discuss what's new in universities and colleges; what incoming students can expect; and administrative problems and costs. Why do we not rank higher among other countries, and why bother with college at all?

March 31 No Human Scene due to Easter Services

Date Change

The date of our annual Open Mic talent show has been changed to Sunday, April 14. Do you sing? Play an instrument? Dance? Juggle? Tell good jokes? All ages and talent levels are welcome. Interested in performing? Contact Michael Aieta at maieta98@netscape.net

Scout Pancake Breakfast

The annual Scout Pancake Breakfast will be held on Saturday, March 2, from 7:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at RPC. Tickets are $5 in advance, or $6 at the door, and can be purchased from any Cub Scout or Boy Scout.

Camp Saugatuck: Family Retreat, Women's Retreat, Summer Camp

Registration is beginning for this year's summer camps and retreats at the Presbyterian Camp in Saugatuck, Michigan. Our Church Family Retreat will be held May 17-20 (the weekend before Memorial Day.) Contact Carrie Staubus to sign up or for more information. A Women's Retreat will be held June 4-6 (Tuesday-Thursday). Contact Marilyn Slanec if you would like to attend. Camp Saugatuck schedules many camp weekends and weeks for families and youth throughout the summer. Registration begins February 1 at their website www.prescamps.org. Available spots are expected to fill up quickly this year. Check the RPC bulletin board to see a list of church members who plan to attend the camp this year.

Easter Lilies

Lilies are mentioned numerous times in the Bible. One of the most famous Biblical references is in the Sermon on the Mount, when Christ told his listeners: Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; and yet . . . Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. According to legend, lilies were found growing in the Garden of Gethsemane where drops of Christ's tears and sweat fell to the ground in his final hours of sorrow. Churches continue this tradition at Easter time by banking their altars and surrounding their crosses with masses of Easter Lilies, to commemorate the resurrection of Jesus Christ and hope of life everlasting.

The Easter Lily industry is an American success story. Prior to 1941, the majority of the bulbs of the Lilium longiflorum were imported to the United States from Japan. World War II eliminated the dependence on Japanese-produced bulbs and commercial bulb production shifted to the U.S. Today over 95% of all bulbs grown for the potted Easter Lily market are produced by ten farms in a narrow coastal region straddling the California-Oregon border.

The Easter Lily bulbs are harvested in the fall, packed and shipped to commercial greenhouses where they are planted in pots and forced under controlled conditions to bloom for the Easter holiday. About 11.5 million Easter Lily bulbs are shipped to commercial greenhouses in the United States and Canada per year.

The cultivar most widely grown today for greenhouse potted Easter Lily production is called "Nellie White." This selection was made by a lily grower named James White, and was named after his wife.
